October 5th 2015

Dear Parents/Carers

It is probably the right time to write to you concerning a few things as this academic year already has five weeks under its belt.

The school has made a good start. There is a mood of positivity around the school with a sense of purpose. Our revised uniform has proved a wonderful tonic to the school. The girls are wearing their uniform with pride and we have received many positive comments from members of the public, parents, the girls themselves and from colleagues who work in other schools.

The school has also received some recognition for its work as we have been selected as the lead school for Modern Foreign Languages from over fifty secondary schools. We have also been awarded Lead Creative School status by the Welsh Arts Council and are due to receive two visits from "Her Majesty's Inspectors" of schools who are visiting us to see very good practice in languages and art.

I need to let you know that the school will be closed to pupils on Friday October 16th for an INSET day. It also seems appropriate that you are reminded of the year's dates – see below: -
